PREFACE

Welcome to Gothenburg, at the fourteenth European Social Science History Conference.

As most of you know, in 2020, Covid forced us to postpone the thirteenth conference that was planned to take place in Leiden. One year later, again due to Covid, we turned the ESSHC into an online event. This year, even though it is an odd year and the world around us is a much less safe place than we all expected and hoped, we are ever so happy to be able to meet you all in person in Gothenburg.

Since the first conference in 1996, the International Institute of Social History in Amsterdam has been the organizer of the ESSHC. To be more precise: since 2001, the organization has been in the safe and skillful hands of Els Kuperus and her small team. It is an important task, since these complex times urgently call for knowledge exchange and discussions.

The IISH is known for its collections and research focusing on the global history of labour, labour relations, social inequality, and social movements. The Institute provides access to archives, publications and data via open access journals such as our International Review of Social History and The Low Countries Journal of Social and Economic History, our open access book series Work around the World, published by University College London Press, and also via our IISH Dataverse, which offers easy access to our research data. In doing so, we hope to contribute to knowledge and insight that are essential for open, democratic and solidary societies.

Today, the humanities and social sciences are needed more than ever.

Therefore the IISH is pleased to organize the ESSHC, to facilitate knowledge exchange, discussions and inspiring encounters.

On behalf of IISH staff, General Director Leo Lucassen, and Director of Data and Collections Eric de Ruijter and myself, I wish you a very good conference.

Karin Hofmeester,
Research Director

THE ESSHC

CHARACTER OF THE ESSHC

The European Social Science History Conference aims at bringing together scholars interested in explaining historical phenomena using the methods of the social sciences. The ESSHC takes place bi-annually: in 1996 in Noordwijkerhout, in 1998 and 2000 in Amsterdam, in 2002 in The Hague and in 2004 the conference crossed the border and took place in Berlin. In 2006 we returned to Amsterdam, in 2008 the conference took place in Lisbon, in 2010 in Ghent, in 2012 in Glasgow, in 2016 in Vienna and the 11th in 2018 took place in Valencia, 2020 was postponed and took place online in 2021.

The conference is characterized by a lively exchange in many small groups, rather than by formal plenary sessions. The Conference welcomes papers and sessions on any topic and any historical period.

SPONSORED BY IISH

The European Social Science History Conference is organised and sponsored by the International Institute of Social History (IISH), an institute of the Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences.

As work and labour relations deeply influence how we live, the mission of the International Institute of Social History (IISH) is to explore how these relations develop globally over time. In order to be able to conduct this historical research and support other researchers, we collect archives and data from all over the world. Established in 1935, the IISH is one of the world's most renowned research institutes on social history.

Information on the IISH is available on our website: iisg.amsterdam

At the IISH Els Kuperus is responsible for the ESSHC. The conference secretariat is in the hands of Ineke Kellij. Astrid Verburg organizes the book exhibit. Database and web interface design by Gordan Cupac and Kerim Meijer. A special thanks to Susanna Fellman and Juan Pablo Juliá Ciarelli.

PARTNERS

The ESSHC 2023 is co-organised by the University of Gothenburg, School of Business, Economics and Law (Handels). The city of Gothenburg co-hosts the reception on Thursday evening.

ADVISORY BOARD

The ESSHC is organised by the International Institute of Social History. To advise the organisers on ESSHC policy an Advisory Board has been formed. It acts as a body that represents the long term interests of the conference and the participants that make it. Participants who want to voice suggestions can approach the organisers through the registration desk, or members of the Advisory Board if they prefer to do so.

Advisory Board Members:

- Anne Epstein, University of Helsinki
- Karin Hofmeester, IISH, University of Antwerp
- Marco van Leeuwen, Utrecht University
- Rene Levy, CESDIP
- Marianna Muravyeva, Oxford Brookes University
- Elise van Nederveen Meerkerk, Utrecht University
- Marlou Schrover, Leiden University
- Mikolaj Szoltysek, The Cardinal Wyszyński University in Warsaw

The Board has drawn up a rotation roster so that every two years two members shall come up for replacement or re-election. The network chairs will be asked to (re)-elect two new members.

PROFESSOR JAN LUCASSEN AWARD

The ESSHC has established The Professor Jan Lucassen Award, a prize for the best paper at the ESSHC by a PhD student.

The paper should be written by a PhD student, in English, and has to be accepted in the ESSHC program. The paper should be based on original research, be innovative and should explicitly strive to explain historical phenomena using the methods of the social sciences. Papers with and international comparative approach are preferred. The maximum length of the paper should be no more than 8000 words.
